Walkin'Antiques with Bob Jordan

features Taylor "Chip" Smith, former Rounder recording artist and multi-instrumentalist, perhaps best known as the legendary "Spider" John Koerner's sidekick over the past 20 years, on piano and Fiddle. Brian Rost plays Bass guitar as he has done for Jordan since the mid-1980s. Rost has played with dozens of area Folk, Blues, Cajun, Rock, and Contra-Dance groups and currently hosts a radio show on Tuesday evenings on Worcester's community radio, WCUW. Drummer Paul Prunier has been accompanying Jordan since 2013, and has played with numerous regional bands as well. 1:00PM Stage A

Allison Clemons

Allison is a 17 year old singer songwriter. She has been writing songs since she was 11, after teaching herself guitar and piano. Allison has written over 16 notebooks full of songs and it is her favorite thing to do. She has performed at open mics and venues in the area for the past five years. Allison loves to share music and meet new people, through her love of singing and songwriting.

9:45 Stage A
11:15AM Stage C

The Brian James Quartet

The Brian James Quartet is a fusion jazz band from the Providence, RI area. They have played primarily throughout the Rhode Island area and are ready to bring their rock-infused jazz to a broader area. Their high energy music incorporates elements of jazz, rock, funk, R&B, and fusion; the energy of the music is infectious and will reach all audiences. The group plays a combination of original compositions and covers by Billy Cobham, Stanton Moore, even Hendrix and Zeppelin. 1:00pm to 3:00pm Beer Garden

The Douglas Oktoberfest Committee proudly presents: CELEBRATE™, a musical parade performed by the talented artists of Dance Sensation, and sponsored by UniBank for Savings. You won't want to miss the single performance which will kick-off the 275th Birthday Celebration of the founding of our home town of Douglas. 3:00pm Main Street.

Renee Lamy

Based out of Worcester, Massachusetts, Renee Lamy has been paving her way in the music scene. Growing up, she was exposed to a wide variety of music which she credits with giving her the chance to explore different styles and discover her love for pop music. Renee's sound can be described as a mix of the pop edge of Julia Michaels and the acoustic flow of Ed Sheeran. 1:45 Stage C

Newport Ave. (formerly known as Just Us) was founded in 2014 by Luke Daly (vocals, keyboard, ukulele), Kylie Lambert (vocals), and Dustin Romeiro (guitar, vocals) who all went to Douglas High school together. They put their own twist on a wide variety of music from decades past and today, as well as write their own material. 10:00PM Stage C

WEINER RACES

ALL Races at Stage B

Sponsored by Dog Orphans

COURTNEY & JESSE
Courtney Webber & Jesse Garcia have been performing throughout Central Massachusetts for the last 12 years singing a wide variety of acoustic covers together as a duet and with the band, Bêlit (pronounced "ba-leet"). 2:00Pm Stage A

Blending both female and male vocals, High Planes incorporates rich storytelling and autobiographical chronicles that feels like home to the classic country and folk music fan. When High Planes began in 2016 their sound was akin to modern bluegrass. Over the years the group has evolved to include more instrumentation and a broadened repertoire that varies from beautiful, quiet finger-picked pieces to rolling country songs layered with ripping Telecaster solos. The current lineup features veteran Rhode Island musicians with over a dozen albums in their collective catalog. Watch for High Planes 2nd full-length Spring 2022. 12:00noon Stage A

Dance Sensation

Dance Sensation Dance Studio is located right here in Douglas, MA. We are performing today with our Performance Team who puts in countless community service hours throughout the year bringing smiles and joy to all they dance for. Dance Sensation Dance Studio is where children become dancers and dancers become family. If you would like more information, see Miss Amy after the performance. 10:00am Stage B
